

Empowering Communities to Preserve Historic Resources in the South Mountain Region

Workshop Series 2024

Tuesday May 7, 2024: 5:00-7:00 pm

Workshop #1: The Value of Historic Preservation for the South Mountain Region

4:30 pm Registration & Refreshments

5:00 pm Welcome & Partner Introduction: Steven Burg, Shippensburg University

5:10 pm Keynote: “The Value of Historic Preservation for the South Mountain Region,” Andre Weltman, Friends of Pine Grove Furnace

5:30 pm Breakout Session: The Places that Matter to Us in the South Mountain Region: Opportunities, Barriers, and Resources for Preservation

6:00 pm Short Break

6:15 pm Panel Discussion: Lessons from Local Preservation Initiatives

Moderator: David Smith, Cumberland County Historical Society

-- Carmen James, Mt. Tabor Church and Cemetery, Mt. Holly Spring

-- Eric Fairchild, Lambert Farmhouse, Upper Allen Township

--TBA

6:55 pm Concluding Remarks, Evaluation Cards, & Invitation to Future Workshops

FUTURE WORKSHOPS (subject to change):

Workshop #2: Methods for Identifying Places that Matter

Workshop #3: Researching Historic Places

Workshop #4: Resources and Strategies for Preserving, Adapting, and Reusing Historic Buildings