FALL WELCOME WEEK
August 19-21, 2021
Welcome Aboard!

WELCOME TO SHIP! We have a great week planned for you to engage with your classmates and learn about the important aspects of campus to ensure your success. We have various programs throughout the week, some are required (everything highlighted in teal) while others are optional. Additionally, you will be able to build your Fall Welcome Week (FWW) bag throughout the week. We have marked events on the schedule where items will be given away. Make sure to bring your bag each day to collect items. Read through the schedule carefully and review all that Ship Fall Welcome Week has to offer!

View your custom Fall Welcome Week schedule by scanning the QR code and logging in to with your Ship e-mail and password.

BIG RED’S BEACH BASH — East and West Residence Hall Quads
Get to know your classmates in an atmosphere of food, fun, games, and music. This is a night you won’t want to miss, hosted by the one and only Big Red! |

*Please check your custom FWW schedule for any last minute facility changes due to weather.
Before your first day of class, we want to make sure you start your first semester off right. Academic Day programming is required for all new students, and highlights important tools and resources as you start your academic career at Ship. Meet your First-Year Experience (FYE) Peer Anchor and engage in small group discussions with your classmates during the Intro to FYE session. Transfer students can meet your fellow transfers to get tips on getting ready for the first day of classes at Ship.

After lunch, enjoy various virtual sessions of your choice to expand your mind and refine your skills. Additionally, you will meet with leadership from your academic college and faculty from your department who will guide you towards degree completion.

After Academic Day, get some rest because you will not want to miss what we have planned for you. Join Big Red for our New Student Cookout and a late-night Glow Party.

Reminder: You will be collecting items to build your FWW bag. Please bring with you all day, your name tag, FWW bag, agenda, and a pen.

LEARNING STYLES AND STUDYING FOR DIFFERENT ACADEMIC PROGRAMS—SHIP.ZOOM.US/J/7174771577
What is a learning style? Do you have a favorite way to learn? Should you be learning new ways to approach your college classes? What if the way YOU like to learn doesn’t match the way your instructor teaches? What are some effective ways to learn using MANY different learning strategies? Come to this session to find answers to these questions and more!
TIME MANAGEMENT—SHIP.ZOOM.US/J/98036485280
Time management is a strategy we all use daily. This session covers basic strategies of time management, such as promoting accountability and establishing a weekly schedule perfect for each person. When you begin college, there is often an adjustment period when you must get used to attending classes, maintaining a social life, and completing the large amounts of work. The time management tools covered in this session give you the ability to take control of your schedule and reduce the risk of procrastination.
SELF-CARE—SHIP.ZOOM.US/J/99267333367
Discuss the importance of sleep, positivity, nutrition, and self-care.

DINING HALLS
For information about dining hall hours and services, visit SHIP.CAMPUSDISH.COM.

E-MAIL ADDRESS
Your campus e-mail account is your primary means of communication from members of the Shippensburg University community. The university will only send e-mails to your campus account. Your responsibilities are to:

- Regularly check your SU e-mail and read your messages at least four times per week.
- Make sure that your e-mail does not exceed storage limits.
- If you choose to forward your e-mail from ship.edu to another e-mail server, you are responsible for making sure that the e-mail is properly forwarded and working.
- Make sure that your SPAM filter or e-mail sorter does not delete official university correspondence.

FIRST DAY ATTENDANCE
The first day attendance policy allows faculty to remove you from a course if you do not attend the first class session and do not provide notice to the faculty member or department secretary. This also applies to the first class after you add a course during schedule adjustment.

If you are dropped from a course for not attending the first class, you may only reschedule it if it remains open during schedule adjustment. Even if you do not attend the first class, you are still responsible for dropping the course during schedule adjustment. Otherwise, you may remain scheduled for the course during schedule adjustment. Even if you do not attend the first class session and do not provide notice to the faculty member or department secretary, you may be removed from a course if you do not attend. You may also be charged for the course.

HOUSING
Visit SHIP.EDU/HOUSING for information on when to report to your residence hall.

MAILING ADDRESS
Make sure that your permanent and local mailing addresses are valid. You may update them in the myShip portal.

PARKING
If you plan to operate a car on campus, you will need to purchase a parking decal. Failure to register your vehicle will result in a fine. Students can register their vehicle for a parking permit online by visiting PARKING.SHIP.EDU.

Once you have completed the online registration process, you will have the option to purchase the permits online by credit card. After registering, you must bring your student ID, operator’s license, and vehicle registration to the Shippensburg University Student Services, Incorporated (SUSSI) office located in the CUB (Rm. 206 Fiscal Office) to receive your parking permit.

STUDENT ID CARDS
All members of our campus community are required to have a student ID—the official identification card for Shippensburg University. Your student ID provides access to essential campus services and facilities. For more information about your SU ID visit, SHIP.EDU/LIFE/FACILITIES/CUB/ONLINE_PHOTO_SUBMISSION.

REGISTRATION PAYMENT
Students who do not pay for scheduled classes will have their schedules canceled and will not be permitted to attend class until they pay. Students who do not pay by the billing deadline will be assessed a $100 late fee.

NO REFUNDS will be issued for ANY CLASSES dropped after the end of the schedule adjustment period. Visit SHIP.EDU/STUDENT_ACCOUNTS/REFUND_SCHEDULE to review refund information and schedule.

RELEASE OF STUDENT INFORMATION
Under federal law, Shippensburg University may release directory information about current students. Directory information includes name, home/local address, phone number, enrollment status, e-mail address, major, degree, and honors.

This information may be provided to callers and may be available on the university’s website. If you do not want this information to be released, you must notify the Registrar’s Office to withhold your directory information.

You may change your information release option by completing the “Place or Remove Hold of Directory Information” form available at SHIP.EDU/REGISTRAR/REGISTRAR_OFFICE_FORMS and submitting it to the Registrar’s Office.

REFUND SCHEDULE
The refund policy is mandated by the Board of Governors of Pennsylvania’s State System of Higher Education. That policy is available through Student Accounts.

NOTE: In some cases a student may owe a balance to the university after Title IV aid is returned.

Information concerning the detailed application of the refund policy can be obtained by contacting the Student Accounts Office at (717) 477-1211. Refund polices are subject to change by the State System.

TEXTBOOKS
Textbooks are available through Ship’s University Store. Visit SHIP.BKSTR.COM or call (717) 477-1600.

WITHDRAWAL FROM CLASS
Students may drop or withdraw from all but their last spring or fall class through myShip. Undergraduates should contact their academic dean’s office to withdraw from their last spring or fall class.

KNOW THE CODE—Did you know...
