

Empowering Communities to Preserve Historic Resources in the South Mountain Region Workshop Series

Workshop #2: Identifying Historic Places that Matter in the South Mountain Region
Thursday, June 13, 2024, 5 pm-7 pm, Foundation House at the New Cumberland Public Library

Agenda:

4:30pm Registration & Refreshments

5:00pm Welcome & Partner Introduction: Steve Burg, Shippensburg University

5:10pm Keynote – Why It Matters; Deciding What to Preserve in our Communities: Mindy Crawford, Executive Director, Preservation PA

5:40pm Tools & Resources for Identifying Historic Places that Matter: Frank Grumbine, Central Region Community Preservation Coordinator, PA State Historic Preservation Office (PA SHPO)

6:10pm Refreshments & Networking Break

6:25pm Getting Started; Surveying your Community for Places that Matter (Activity): Frank Grumbine, PA SHPO and Steve Burg, Department of History, Shippensburg University

6:55 pm Concluding Remarks, Evaluation, & Invitation to Future Workshops

Future Workshops:

#3 - Fall 2024/TBA: Researching Historic Places

#4 - Fall 2024/TBA: Tools and Strategies for Preserving, Adapting, and Reusing Historic Buildings

